

Are you tired of living on the road and never seeing your family? If so, Noash Construction, Inc. may have an opportunity for you!

Noash Construction, Inc. (NCI) has been in business since 1997 serving the needs of the communication tower industry in the Midwest and Southeastern portion of the United States. NCI is a family owned small business with minimal employee turn over and an emphasis on Customer Satisfaction! At NCI we specialize in the service and installation of communication towers and associated elevated equipment with a focus on troubleshooting and repair.

NCI offers competitive pay, paid vacations and holidays along with major medical and 401K and a well maintained fleet of trucks and equipment. We have in-house certified OSHA instructors as well as tower safety and rescue instructors with on premise towers for training.

We are currently seeking to hire a person to fill the position of Tower Foreman/Supervisor, this position will require the following;

You must be willing to live with in 50 miles of Sebree, KY 42455, most of our work is local so you will be home most nights with your family

5+ years of crew supervisory experience on communication towers

Coax & antenna installation and repair experience

Troubleshooting & Repair experience

PIM & Sweep testing experience (certification a plus)

Computer Skills

Valid Drivers license

Clean driving record and background check

This is a active working position, you will be climbing daily as well

Good People skills, Customer First Attitude

All potential hire's will be required to complete our on-line application, a pre-hire drug test and background check and an on site interview at our location